

Statistics of University of Geomedi graduates (employment rate according to received qualifications and academic development)

I. Statistics of the employment of the graduates of the Georgian and English-language educational program of the qualified medical doctor (in accordance with the received qualifications) and the continuation of studies at the next level

1. 12 Georgian-speaking graduates (25%) of 2020 are employed according to their qualifications, and 30% continued their studies in residency.
2. 16 graduates (25%) of 2020 are employed according to their qualifications, and 58% continued their studies in residency.
3. 9 graduates (30%) of 2021 are employed according to their qualifications, and 30% continued their studies at the residency.
4. 53 English-speaking graduates (42%) of 2021 are employed according to their qualifications, and 58% continued their studies in residency.
5. 25 Georgian-speaking graduates (40%) of 2022 are employed according to their qualifications, and 52% continued their studies at the residency.
6. 108 English-speaking graduates (50%) of 2022 are employed according to their qualifications, and 65% continued their studies in residency.
7. 103 Georgian-speaking graduates (29%) of 2023 (are employed according to their qualifications, and 60% continued their studies in residency.
8. 72 English-speaking) graduates (30%) of 2023 are employed according to their qualifications, and 72% continued their studies in residency..
9. 9 Georgian-speaking graduates (44%) of 2024 are employed according to their qualifications, and 55% continued their studies in residency.
10. 48 English-speaking graduates (18%) of 2024 are employed according to their qualifications, and 60% continued their studies in residency.

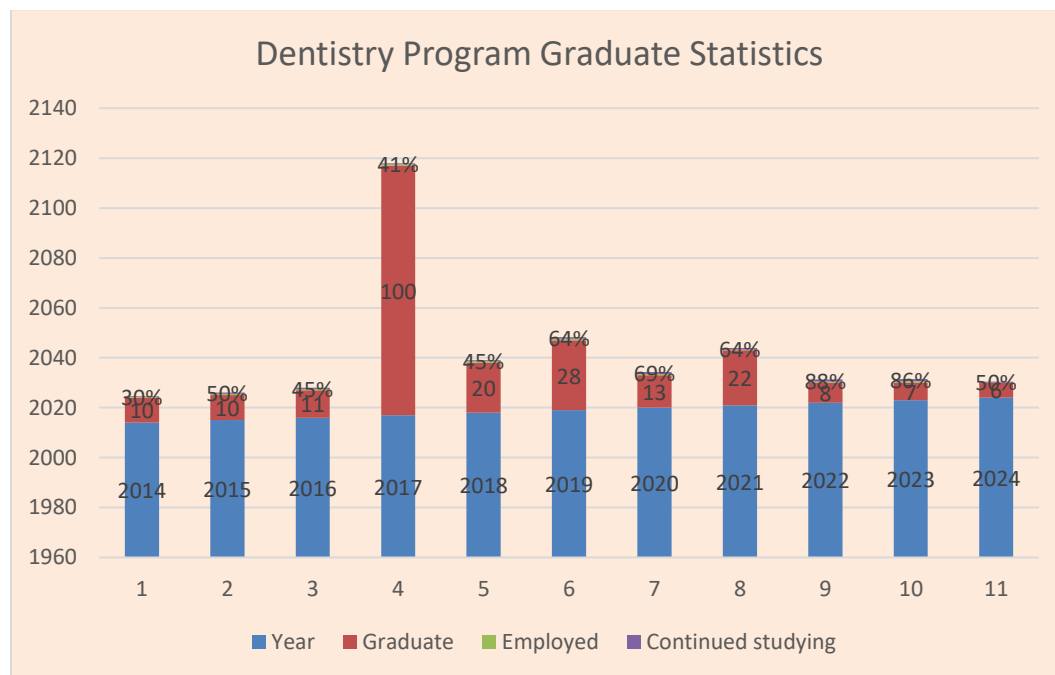

II. Statistics of the employment of graduates of the one-level educational program of dentistry (in accordance with the obtained qualifications) and the continuation of studies at the next level

1. 10 graduates (42%) of 2014 are employed according to their qualifications, and 30% continued their studies at the residency.
2. 10 graduates (60%) of 2015 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their studies at the residency.
3. 11 graduates (52%) of 2016 are employed according to their qualifications, and 45% continued their studies at the residency.
4. 100 graduates (52%) of 2017 are employed according to their qualifications, and 41% continued their studies at the residency.
5. 20 graduates (60%) of 2018 are employed according to their qualifications, and 45% continued their studies at the residency.
6. 28 graduates (61%) of 2019 are employed according to their qualifications, and 64% continued their studies at the residency.
7. 13 graduates (54%) of 2020 are employed according to their qualifications, and 69% continued their studies in residency.
8. 27% of the 22 graduates of 2021 are employed according to their qualifications, and 64% continued their studies in residency.
9. 7 (88%) of the 8 graduates of 2022 continued their studies in residency, 1(12%) are employed according to their qualifications.

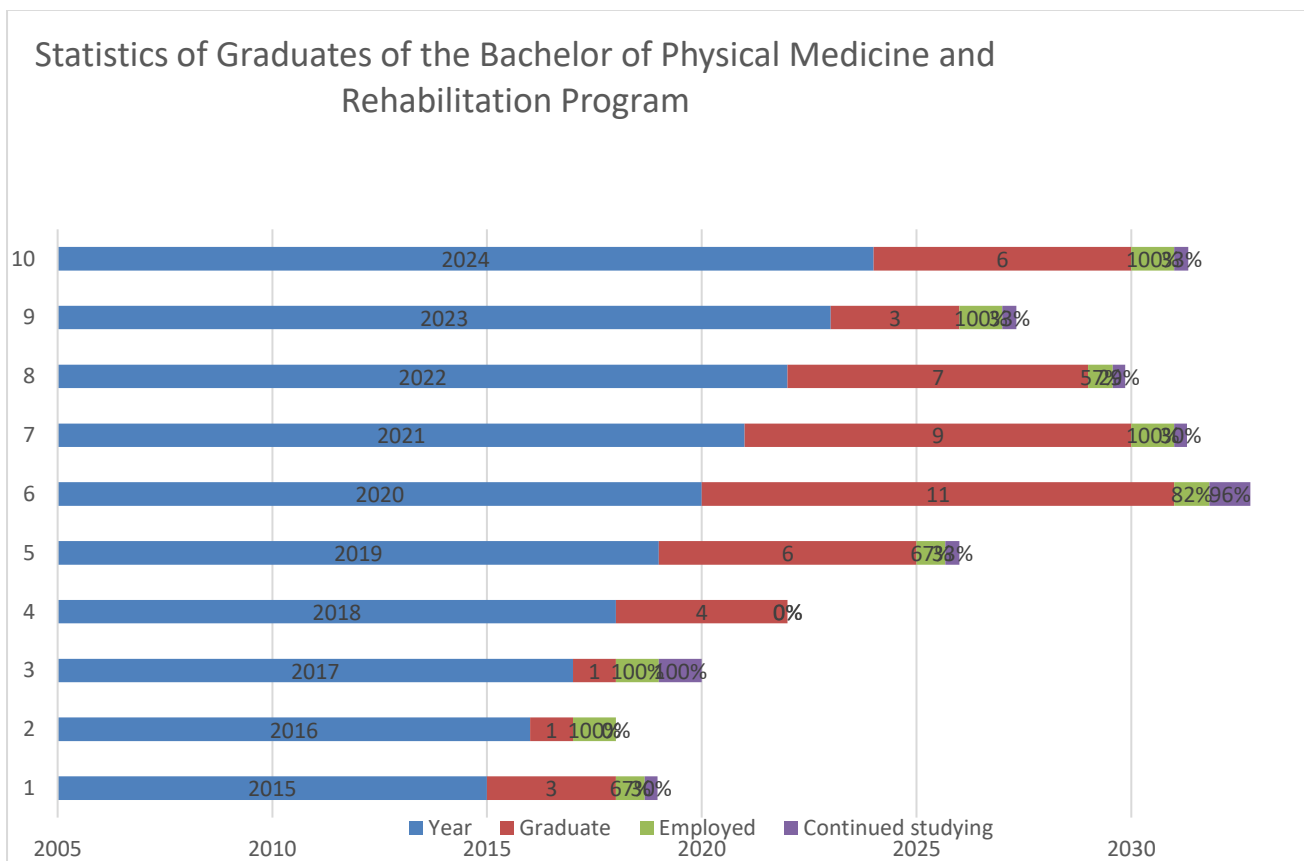

10. 6 (86%) out of 7 graduates of the 2023 continued their studies in residency. 1 (14%) are employed according to their qualifications.

11. 3 (50%) out of 6 graduates of 2024 continued their studies in residency. Employment rates based on the qualifications obtained will be reflected after the completion of residency..

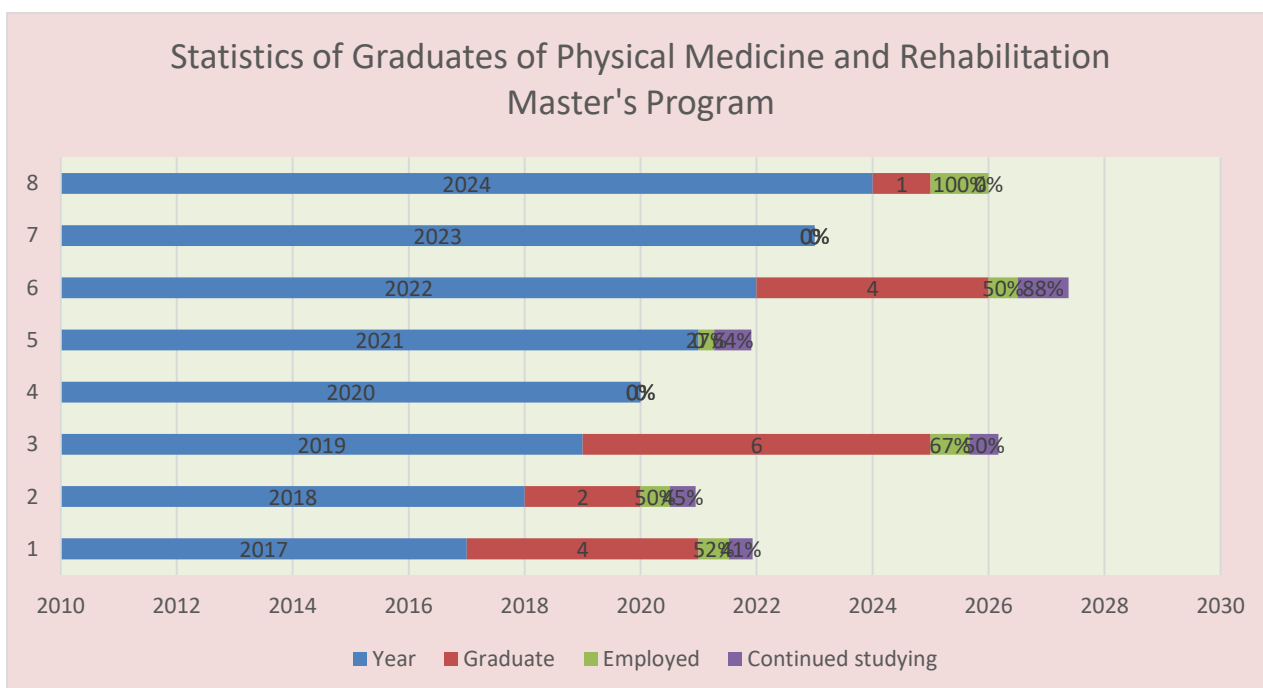

III. Statistics of the employment of graduates of the undergraduate educational program of physical medicine and rehabilitation (in accordance with the received qualifications) and the continuation of studies at the next level

- 3 graduates (67%) of 2015 are employed, and 30% continued their master's studies.
- 1 graduate (100%) of 2016 is employed according to their qualifications, while 0% continued their master's studies.
- 100% of the graduates of 2017 are employed according to their qualifications, and 100% continued their master's studies.
- 4 graduates (0%) of 2018 are employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.
- 6 graduates (67%) of 2019 are employed according to their qualifications, and 33% continued their master's studies
- 11 graduates (11%) of 2020 are employed, and 96% continued their master's studies.
- 100% of 9 graduates of 2021 are employed, and 30% continued their master's studies.
- 7 (57%) graduates of 2022 are employed, and 29% continued their master's studies.
- 3 graduates (100%) of 2023 are employed, and 33% continued their master's studies.
- 6 graduates (100%) of 2024 are employed, and 33% continued their master's studies.

IV. Statistics of employment of graduates of the master's educational program of physical medicine and rehabilitation (in accordance with received qualifications) and continuation of studies at the next level

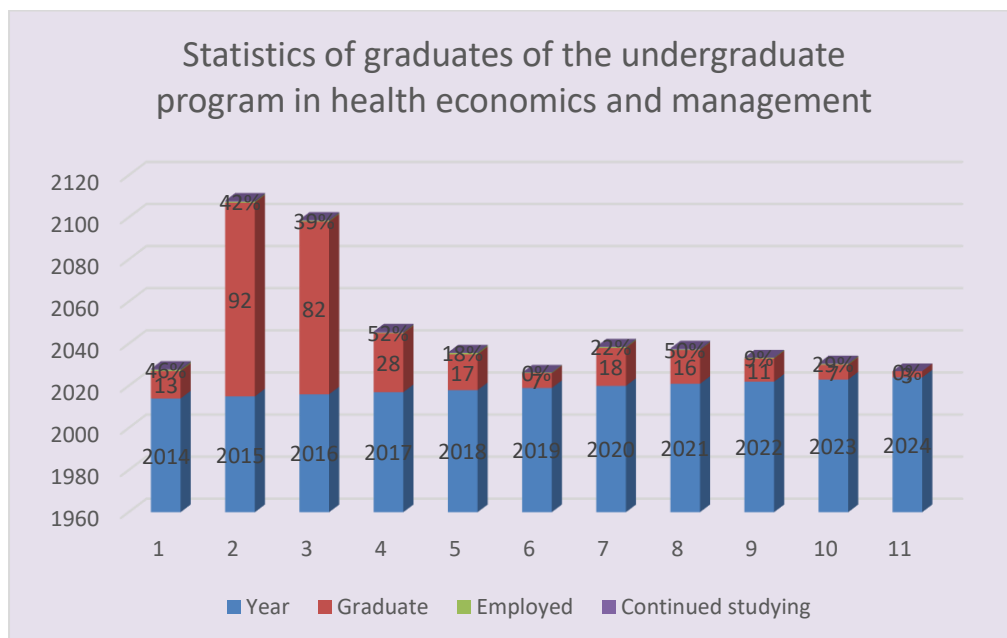

1. 4 graduates (100%) of 2017 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
2. 24 graduates (50%) of 2018 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
3. 6 graduates (67%) of 2019 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
4. The Medicine and Rehabilitation Master's Educational Program did not have a graduate in 2020.
5. 0 graduate (0%) of 2021 is employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.
6. 4 graduates (75%) of 2022 received qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
7. 0% of 2023 is employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.
8. 1 graduate (100%) of 2024 is employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.

V. Statistics of employment of graduates of the undergraduate education program of health economics and management (in accordance with received qualifications) and continuation of studies at the next level

1. 50 graduates (58%) of 2013 are employed according to their qualifications, and 35% continued their master's studies.
2. 13 graduates (62%) of the 2014 are employed according to their qualifications, and 46% continued their master's studies.
3. 92 graduates (51%) of the 2015 are employed according to their qualifications, and 42% continued their master's studies.
4. 82 graduates (50%) of the 2016 are employed according to their qualifications, and 39% continued their master's studies.
5. 28 graduates (32%) of the 2017 are employed according to their qualifications, and 52% continued their master's studies.
6. 65% of the 17 graduates of 2018 are employed according to their qualifications, and 18% continued their master's studies.
7. 29% of the 7 graduates of 2019 are employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.
8. 18 graduates (44%) of 2020 class are employed according to their qualifications, and 22% continued their master's studies.
9. 22 graduates (27%) of 2021 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% have continued their master's studies.
10. 11 graduates (36%) of 2022 are employed according to their qualifications, and 9% continued their master's studies.
11. 7 graduates (43%) of 2023 are employed according to their qualifications, and 29% continued their master's studies.

12. 3 graduates (0%) of 2024 are employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.

VI. Statistics of employment of graduates of the Master's Educational Program in Health Care Management (in accordance with received qualifications) and continuation of studies at the next level

1. 100% of the 2 graduates of 2014 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
2. 75% of the 4 graduates of 2015 are employed according to their qualifications, and 25% continued their master's studies.
3. 50% of the 4 graduates of 2016 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
4. 100% of the 4 graduates of 2017 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
5. 100% of the graduates of 2018 are employed according to their qualifications, and 100% continued their master's studies.
6. 100% of the 3 graduates of 2019 are employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.
7. 50% of 2 graduates of 2020 are employed, and 50% continued their master's studies.

8. 50% of the 2 graduates of 2021 are employed according to their qualifications, and 50% continued their master's studies.
9. 50% of the 8 graduates of 2022 are employed according to their qualifications, and 25% continued their master's studies.
10. 100% of the graduates of 2023 are employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.
11. 100% of the 1 graduates of 2024 are employed according to their qualifications, and 0% continued their master's studies.

